"Most lesbians and gay men are tired of suffering, no matter how redemptive.
We want to celebrate."

The Word Is Out

The Bible Reclaimed for Lesbians and Gay Men

* * * * *

A lively and inspirational collection of 365 daily meditations that explode fundamentalist misconceptions that the Bible does not have positive things to say to lesbians and gay men.

Richly written, evocative, and often surprising, The Word Is Out reclaims the same Bible often used to condemn homosexuality. Author Chris Glaser daringly reinterprets the Scriptures and offers Christian lesbians and gay men comfort rather than condemnation.

"God whispers that Word to us in the intimate lovemaking of our meditation, and we proclaim it, flaunting God's Word to the world."--from The Word Is Out

"The Bible may serve as a source of liberation...The central word of scripture is love: a love that calls us OUT from oppression and welcomes our love. Lesbian and gay spiritual seekers deserve a devotional book that helps that word emerge from the closets of the Bible's ancient stories and theological jargon."--Chris Glaser

"Some of us believed when young that if we said the right words in prayer, God would change us, make us like everyone else. It didn't happen, and some of us lost faith in God, angry that God would create us and allow us to be outcast. Others of us changed the tune of our prayer, and prayed to integrate our faith and sexuality."--from The Word Is Out

* * * * *

A graduate of Yale Divinity School, Chris Glaser has years of ministry experience in the gay and lesbian community. His four books on integrating homosexuality with Christian spirituality include Uncommon Calling and Coming Out to God. When he is not travelling, speaking, and conducting workshops and retreats, Glaser lives in Atlanta with his lover Mark King, an HIV-positive AIDS activist who is the executive director of an AIDS organization.

Dear Friends,

On behalf of the Texas Gay Rodeo Association, a non-profit 501(c)3 charitable organization, I would like to invite you to attend our 11th annual rodeo to be held in Austin, Texas, November 11-13, 1994. Our annual rodeo to benefit people with AIDS, will take place at the Travis County Exposition Center. Competitors on the International Gay Rodeo Association circuit will converge on Austin for 2 days of rigorous but enjoyable competition. In addition to these competitors, hundreds of spectators will be visiting the state. Enclosed you will find an informative brochure concerning the events surrounding the weekend of the rodeo. The rodeo will be the main focus of the weekend, however there will also be vendor and entertainment venues. We will be printing a rodeo program that will contain many advertisements from supporters along with descriptions of rodeo events. This program will also showcase some very special personalities of our community that have made a difference during the year.

For information on how you could support the rodeo, please feel free to call either one of our information numbers listed in the brochure. If you would like additional copies of this brochure or posters, please feel free to give us a call at 214/720-6051.

Dear Director,

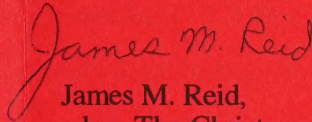

I am a Gay businessman who has always been crazy about Christmas; thus the name: "The Christmas Fairy™". In an attempt to put Gay and Christmas together, I have designed this line of Gay themed Christmas ornaments. Each ornament is packaged in a fine gift box, with the history of the ornament printed on the bottom of the box. We are developing both a wholesale and mail order business. We have printed a full color postcard/catalog/ order form to help in the marketing of our products. Since it is our policy to donate 10% of our profits to Lesbian and Gay charities, we have a line on our order form for our customers to designate their favorite charity.

The manager of a M.C.C. bookstore in Florida suggested that we distribute our postcards through Metropolitan Community Churches and donate 10% of our profits to the individual Churches. Since we track the source of all of our mail order customer orders on computer, it is easy for us to calculate the total orders from each source and send a check for 10% of each order to that Church. It is our goal to have our ornaments on thousands of Christmas trees across the country, as a symbol of pride in being Gay and a loving being.

It is our proposal, that we send to you a number of our postcards along with a few samples of our ornaments; and that you make them available to your congregation. You could write the name of your Church on the line for designated charity. In December, we will send a check to your Church equal to 10% of all orders sent in from your congregation.

Please let us know if you would like to receive samples, and the number of post cards that you would like. Also if you have a bookstore that would be interested in carrying our ornaments, we will send along wholesale price information. The Metropolitan Community Church in Florida is carrying our AIDS ribbon ornament in their bookstore, and distributing our postcards for the other ornaments. If you have any ideas that you would like to see made into a Gay themed Christmas ornament, please let us know. We would love to hear from you.

With warm affection,
